

Jones Forms International Relation Club

Students Select Dean Jensen As Faculty Adviser For Group

John Clarke, senior, was elected president of the International Relations club in the Faculty room Tuesday. The other officers will be chosen December 1.

An International Relations club was organized by Miss Amy Hemmings Jones, executive secretary of the International Relations club that are sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Dr. Christine Jensen was the faculty member selected by the students to take charge of the club. Meetings will be held every two weeks for the discussion of international problems. The Carnegie Endowment fund will furnish books, news letters and pamphlets on the subject line of charge. Every year some outstanding speaker will be invited to the club to address the students. These clubs are organized all over the world by the Carnegie Endowment for the purpose of cultivating a new point of view towards war and international relations. There has been an extraordinary change in the point of view towards war and in public opinion in the last few years. Miss Jones is in her first year of college. She is a member of the political science department of the University of Utah, accompanied Miss Jones was introduced here to the student body.

Scrapbook Comes On Campus Soon

"The Scrapbook will be issued immediately after the Thanksgiving holidays," reports Clyde Sandgren and Howard Calkins.

In addition to the other special features of the first section of the book, the senior group picture will be included. This was taken Friday and will be accompanied by a list of all the senior class members.

The printing arrangement for the book has been completed. The engraving of the cover, designed by Fredrick Parrell Collier, reports that it will soon be ready for printing.

The publishers announce that the books are "going fast." Only 200 are ordered and distributed for the necessary for a student to obtain one.

Scrapbooks may still be obtained from the following: Jay Nelson, Don Alder, Charles Culmes, Clyde Sandgren, Pauline Benson, Phyllis Miller, Howard Calkins, Webster Decker, Monte Wenta, Charles Harris, Rigby Jacobs, Ray McGuire, and Mark Brockbank.

Helen Cook, Helen Boyer, Edith Hanson, and Phyllis Benson are also working on the scrapbooks. Edith Hanson, Elwood Morrison and Helen Decker.

SOPHOMORES GIVE ANNUAL BALL TO SWELL STUDENT LOAN FUND

Why You Can Afford a Ticket To the Loan Fund Ball--

You will be investing in a type of Educational Insurance. Each year the proceeds of the ball go to swell the Student Loan Fund. With aid from other sources, the fund has grown from zero in 1921 to about $5000. Besides the actual money available for loans, the fund serves as a basis for extending credit in cases of absolute necessity. Thus it has helped hundreds of worthy students to complete their education. Who knows?—you may need it all before you get through.

You will be helping the best of causes. Whether or not you ever need a loan personally, you will be aiding fellowstudents to remain in school. The more who cooperate, the greater grows the power of the Fund to serve individuals and the B. Y. U.

You will have a rousing good time. We aren't referring to the indispensable job of giving. We mean that you are going to have at the Ball itself. The Sophomore Loan Fund Ball is always one of the great fun-fests of the year.

You will get your money's worth at the Ball!

Frosh Seek Popular Girl Orators Near Grant Finals

An International Mind

The institution of a club for the development of the spirit of international-mindedness on our campus helps to us an opportunity to study at close hand and under competent supervision, the workings of the human mind in different parts of the world and under varying social and economic conditions.

A society which has inherent within it the expansion of a sympathetic and understanding spirit, actuated by a deeply religious rest for the attainment of human brotherhood, could hardly stand on the side lines and cater in the face of malcontent and evident misrepresentation. One could presume to condemn the attitude held by many self-righting majorities that "might is right," when its own experience in a short history has taught numbers to discountage its status as the basis for determining right. It is apparent that misunderstanding lies at the root of much of our world including international embassies.

ENGLISH STUDENTS ASK DISARMAMENT

English universities, together with universities the world over, are active in the disarmament campaign. The university students have drawn up the following petition: "We, the undersigned, representative of all types of undergraduate opinion among the students of the world, are 'ASSURED of the necessity of fulfilling treaty obligations to disarm, and of the waste and danger of maintaining armaments at their present level."

CONSIDERING that past controversy upon questions of method is of small importance with the small and secure agreement upon a genuine and drastic reduction, whatever be the conditions of limitation adopted by the World Disarmament Conference.

CONVINCED that nothing less than an all-round reduction of armaments in any quarter can restore confidence in the efficacy of peaceful settlement and in the good faith of governments, "RESPECTFULLY URGES His Majesty's Government to make known without delay the readiness of Great Britain to accept a reduction upon any basis the object of the Conference of February."

This petition has been signed by the leading in seventeen British universities.

"CUT THE ALIBI—MOVE THE MUCK"—SAYS BRIMHALL

"We'll Sing the Songs of Zion" by Mendelssohn was the opening song of the choral motion drama at assembly.

Dr. George H. Brimhall, president emeritus, spoke on the Boulder Dam project. Nine months ago President Brimhall visited the dam site and returned recently. "Too many of us think the project is one of the most elaborate of the age."

"Brimhall praised the city of Boulder for its cleanliness and excellent sanitation."

"Cut the alibi and move the muck" is the slogan adopted upon at the dam. President Brimhall admonished his city everyone.

Enrich Education, Dean Merrill Advises Apprentice Teachers

All teachers should pay more attention to teaching requirements if they want a state teaching certificate, urged Dr. A. Merrill at a meeting Monday. Group requirements should be filled during Sophomore and Freshman years. Too many students are leaving their teaching requirements until their senior year.

PEOPLE YOU SHOULD KNOW

CARNIVAL QUEEN

Miss Maria Osmond, who was chosen carnival queen at the M. Y. A. "Carnival of Nations" held in the Ladies gym Tuesday evening, attended the University of Utah last year. However, the previous year she was queen of the carnival.

During that year she was a member of the orchestra. At the "U" she was a member of the Palmyra national social society and the varsity women's debating squad. This year she is a vocal soloist in business and singing in English and Spanish. She is a member of the A. W. S. S. and society editor of the News. Representing the Fourth ward, Miss Osmond competed with eight other "queens" from the other wards of Utah state, and won the supreme honor in a keenly contested competition.

WILKINS NUTTALL

By THORON LUCE
In the Soph-Fresh wrestling bout last Thursday night, a rather unusual match claimed much of the national admiration from the spectators.

Wilkins Nuttall, Freshman, wrestling under a handicap that most men would consider unbecomeable even in ordinary activities, put up one of the greatest battles of the evening before losing in slightly over four minutes. After time after time he wriggled out of what looked to be certain pinning holds, and taking the aggressive side of the action, he had had opponent in extremely dangerous positions during the period.

In the Sophomore-Freshman football rush a number of weeks ago, one Tom Fennell, said to be much admired to the Sophomore ranks, any member of his class, and was prominent in every school activity usually on top. His plan of attack was very simple, but put into effect as he put on a Sophomore a Sophomore had few minutes. He would strike a man, separate him from the central mass and then, figuratively speaking, tramp him into the line. And he was at it backward about pinning larger men to work on.

His associates tell me that he has to his credit a climb to the top of Timpanogos, made in creditable time, and that he has a reputation as a sportsman, who can have only the highest admiration. Good wishes for his continued success shall certainly not be lacking.

MRS. DUNBERRY PILLS LECTURE ENGAGEMENTS

Mrs. Ida Smoot Dunberry filled two lecture engagements last week. The subject being, "Wonders of the World." Thursday night she spoke before the Business and Professional Men's Club of Provo, and Friday night she spoke at a banquet which was given in honor of the Gold Star Mothers of Spanish Port.

WYOMING COWBOYS BEAT Y COUGARS 13-7; SPOIL HOMEcoming

Conference Rumblings

By GLEN WILKINSON

While the Wyoming cowboys were spoiling the Cougars' Homecoming day, the two other states also were securing admirable victories, especially that of Utah Aggies over the Colorado Aggies, the favorite game, 6-0.

The one and outstanding concern the Mormons can glean from the somewhat disappointing season just past, is the third straight victory of the Out Rovers men over Brother Dick Romney's Aggies. The Aggies up to now have gone through a schedule of six conference games but with this one defeat although some critics are at odds with the statement that the Utah Aggie has not mired into any serious opposition as yet, besides that they met in their one defeat.

Observations seem to show that, outside of Utah university, all the teams of the conference are fairly well matched with the possible exception of the Utah Aggies, Colorado Mills, Montana State and possibly Western States college balancing Utah from the other end of the conference ladder. Colorado college did a commendable bit of work against Utah Aggies, but miserably in the latter half of their game, but Utah was not cliché and after the other half of the game they were again the winners and Aggies and Brigham Young.

Colorado Aggies also pulled exceptionally close games out of the fire with Colorado Teachers college 9-7 and Denver university, playing with out the watchful eye of Coach Jeff Cravath, was humbled 9-2. Denver barely nipped out Colorado Teachers early in the season as did Wyoming, and when Brigham Young came along the law of averages was with the Greeley lads so they were awarded the victory 6-0. Then the Cougars came back against the Aggies in that never-to-be-forgotten tradition of the "little w" in Ogden. The Aggies won 6-0, but this was too good to lose so the Mormons took it on the chin to return to the homecoming day for all those ten returning lettermen who sat on the west side of the stadium.

Rumor has it that Coach Dick Romney will refuse to play the Cougars in Ogden in the future, giving as his reason the fact that the Cougars seem unfortunally on the Ogden stadium turf. Wrong again, Dick. The Cougars' look good against the Farmers on any field.

Dominance of Utah in R. M. C. football is making it tough for several other coaches of the conference to handle their jobs. Alumni at Denver, Colorado college and Colorado university are reported to be gunning for the scalp of Jeff Cravath, Bully Van de Graaf, and Myron Witham, respectively. Colorado alumni and Myron Witham are surely receiving the other medals of back-firing in each other, but the trouble at the school and two schools is newsworthy news possibly more acute.

Jeff Cravath, one of the younger coaches of the conference, is a protégé of Howard Jones at U. S. C. and is serving his third year as head coach at Denver, and is sending a somewhat distressing season next Saturday. Bully Van de Graaf, the gridiron coach who developed Dutch Clark a few years ago, seems to be under fire and alumni fire alike. Person-

Scheriffs Run Wild Over Cougars' Tackles to Beat Wyoming, Biddigh, Niangner, Robison Play Well.

In a tangle game which thrilled the cheering fans, the University of Wyoming cowboys scored a win over the fighting Cougars in the annual tussle last Friday in the V stadium. The final score was 13-7.

Although the football of the Cowboys was clearly superior to that of the Cougars, the latter were able to have ended with the Y on the heavy end of a 7-6 score. A brief lull after the Y's victory, the third quarter enabled the Cowboys to push their winning touchdown across and saw up the game.

In several pinches the Y defense was able to stop the Cougars' offense. The White and Blue held the Laramie aggregation on the one-foot line for four years. They however played lastlessly at times and Wyoming was quick to take advantage of any stoppage.

Cowboys Score First
The Cowboys started the fireworks in the first quarter when Scheriffs, Wyoming halfback, started a series of end runs and off-tackle smashes which placed the ball on the Y 15-yard line. A penalty on the Cougars at this point for communicating by a substitute, cost the sons of Brigham 15 yards and placed the ball on the 4 yard line. Then the Cougars immediately rained the ball across the goal line.

The Cougars retaliated in the second quarter when a pass, Merrill to Skousen, caught the Y's defense off-guard and placed the egg on the 16 yard line. Line plays by Biddigh and Scheriffs advanced the ball to the 1 yard line and a quarterback sneak by Merrill evaded the score at 6 all. A line play by Shuler was good for an extra point and the White and Blue went up 7-6 at half.

Fatal Touchdown
The score which was fatal to the Young men's team came in the second period. A 13 yard penalty for roughing the ladder demanded the Cougars' line placed the ball on the 2 yard line. Scheriffs duplicated his earlier feat by driving the ball over the goal line and the Cougars squirmed his way to the two-yard line where line stars by Engstrom prevented the Cougars from scoring.

The hero-roles for the Cougars were played by Captain Wingard who ended his last career competition by turning in a fabulous game at guard, and Hal Niangner whose defense work in the first half was sensational. Biddigh was the mini-gunner of the Y offense. He handled punts in good style and ran off on-tackle plays for substantial gains. Hales who started at guard in Scheriff's place looked good. Shields was out of the game due to an injury in the Aggie game. Skousen backed up the line in his characteristic way and tackled viciously throughout the game.

ally, we see no basis for this action. Van de Graaf took his term east to hold the Army 20-0 and then held Utah to 20-0 in the mountains, sandwiching a win or two in with conference games.

Frank Robbins is actually beginning to look haggard over this Loan Fund ball—he can't control his leg and is really "Dutch treat."

TO BE FIGHTED IN FORTY MEN REPORT FOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Cougar Varsity and 3 Alumni Teams to Play Round-Robin Hoop Tourney.

Quantities of basketball combined with a superior quality will be afforded by the Cougars in the Thanksgiving holiday season. The Cougars will collect basketball "gravy" ever assembled in this region. Four teams, the Cougars, the Y, the Aggies, and the U. S. C. will be competing.

The Young varsity will likely still be lacking a definite basketball organization, but will have capable veterans and ambitious youngsters to attempt to stave off the attacks of the alumni teams. The B. Y. U. Alumni squad will be made up of the following: Jerry Smith, Omer scoring threats and defensive maneuvers will be attempted by Pete Dow, Ray Lyberty, Ode Evans, Pete Couch, George Watkins and Lamar Vincent.

Utah State's grade will be represented by the following: Glen Worthington, former all-conference center, Frank Nielsen, Carl Davis, Red Wade, Theron Smart, Martindale, Benson and Raymond.

The tournament will continue Thanksgiving night and continue for several more days, ending on the other team entered in the competition.

Charity Game Offer Turkey Day Refused

An invitation from the University of Utah, Southern Branch, at Pocatello for a football game on Thanksgiving day for the benefit of charity was refused by the Cougars. The team, had a regular season was dispatched to the Indians because of the season different from the one desired to prevent the game.

The football squad had already been invited for the season when the invitation was received and a canvass among the members made by Keith Wingard, captain, disclosed the fact that the players were averse to the proposition because of heavy academic requirements, disagreeable weather, and other reasons. However, they are willing to know whether they, if university officials deemed it advisable, but definite word from the athletic department this morning said the game would not be played.

EACH COLLEGE HAS SEPARATE MEETING TODAY

The various colleges of the institution met today in separate meetings of the year of the general assembly. These were the first separate meetings of the year to be held by the colleges. One provided for each quarter. The B. Y. U. has grown so rapidly in the past few years that it is impossible to know whether these meetings are one way of having the students of each college get acquainted. These meetings also foster a professional spirit among the people of the colleges.

SHAKESPEARIAN DRAMA, TALKS ON ECONOMICS, PSYCHOLOGY ON RADIO

Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" will be presented by the Radio Guild on Wednesday, 20, beginning at 4:15 P. M., E. S. T., over an N. B. C. network.

William F. Goshalt, St. Louis, will speak on "Business Depressions and Business Prizes" November 21. The same evening, Arnold Gestell of Yale university will discuss "The Development of the Infant Mind." These will be beginning at 6:30 P. M. S. T. over KSL.

Large Squad Fighting For Positions and Trip to Middle West Early in December.

Over forty men are practicing daily in preparation for B. Y. U.'s drive for 1931 conference, basketball honors. About twenty-five men have been involved in the practice. The Cougars' Coach Dixon for the past three weeks, while the conclusion of the football season has made available about 17 additional players.

Coach Romney has announced that for the present, Romney, Robison, Gage, Hunter and Evans will comprise the varsity team. Six men will be selected later to round out the squad.

In addition, Brigham Young university will stage two squads in a mid-state league which will be organized later in the season. Romney will insure wide participation and competition for players, inasmuch as second-year men will be eligible to replace varsity men should such action seem justified.

Reasons for Optimism
Beside the five regulars, Coach Romney has several letterback back. Such men as Romney, Jensen, Johnson, H. Hart, Magley and Evans are certain to make strong bids for the varsity. A strong array of new talent available. Jo Johnson, who captured state scholastic championships last year, Millett, K. Hart, Le Sueur, Chambers, La Roche, Francis, P. Dow, and J. Peterson, will undoubtedly prove future varsity material.

Other candidates who may develop rapidly under the tutelage of Coach Romney and Coach Dixon are Tom Niangner, Jensen, Witham, Koster, Erickson, Webb, Earl, Crawford, and J. C. Lewis, P. Peterson, Wiley, Kirkham, K. Webb, O. Peterson, Sholer, Hutchinson, and P. Anderson.

Basketball Men Out at Y High

With the starting of basketball workouts, the season books bright for the Cougars. The Cougars' basketball team was the most successful the school has ever had; and only one regular season scholastic championship was won by graduation.

To compensate for this loss, a new man, Dick Grinnett, will be eligible to play after the first semester. Grinnett is a Junior, and last year, while only a Sophomore, was selected all-Mahoe center.

The remaining regulars, Tom Eastmond, Jack Eastmond, Bud Down, and Ronnie Jones can be counted on for stellar performances. The rest of the boys who turned out show plenty of promise. The season is determined to make this a "Y" year.

Then, there's the absent-minded pro who turned on his wife and kissed the ligament.
